PREMIER GRADE PREVIEW

Premier Rugby was once again sliding into grounds as the Gungahlin Eagles vs Royals was postponed until last week because of the condition of the grounds. But for the other matchups, they produced some very tough outcomes for teams throughout the capital.

Vikings welcomed the Uni - North Owls onto Viking Park and were determined to win those matchups with 2's getting up against the owls in wet conditions 22-19, while the 3's in a thriller that ended up in a draw 21-21 and the 4's came up to a clutch penalty kick that secured the win for the Vikings beating the owls 29-26. The Colts, on the other hand, had a bye.

Out at Jamison Oval, It was a great performance from the Wests 2's beating Whites on their home turf 36-7. While it was a very tight matchup in the 3's much tighter than last weeks performance with another draw of the round 10-10 and the 4's blew the whites out of Jamison with beating them by 19 points and the Colts visitors won that matchup with a big performance in the conditions 0-36.

Everyone in Premier Rugby had a bye for the weekend while the Gungahlin Eagles and the Canberra Royals matchup in the ultimate showdown out at Duntroon's Portsea Oval.

The 2nds game was an amazing matchup to see, even if it was wet and cold and a little bit of snow, both sides showed true grit but the Eagles showed their true colours defeating the royals 19-13.

In the 3's and 4's, both teams were considered a Nil - all draw

And in the Colts matchup, in freak weather, it really snowed for their game but the eagles just missed out by falling short to the royals 10-14.

Gungahlin face-off Queanbeyan Whites at Campese Field this weekend while the Royals face the Tuggeranong Vikings at Phillip's Oval. In the Single Fin Match of the round Wests take on top of the table Uni-Norths at Jamison Oval.

The third placed Western Districts Lions will play host to the competition leaders the Uni Norths Owls at Jamison Oval in what should be a cracking fixture in round six of the John I Dent Cup.

Both sides should be freshened up coming off last week's bye and Wests will be eager to get one up on the competition leaders, who narrowly defeated them by three points in round two.

The Owls are coming off their first loss of the season and will be keen to get back in the winner's circle, after going down to Tuggeranong in round five by a heartbreaking single point.

They will also be hoping to put an end to the Lions' current winning streak, who have won their last three and, in the process, extend their lead on top of the table.

Wests will head into the match without winger Allan Wratten, who was shown red in their last fixture after taking out a Queanbeyan player in mid-air early in the match.

Despite being down to 14 men for most of the clash, Wests still were still able to run out comfortable 30-14 winners, which will give Adam Butt's side plenty of confidence heading into this week's match-up.

Keep a strong eye on young superstar fullback Declan Meredith for Wests, who is having an outstanding season. Meredith currently leads the competition in points with 67 and has been instrumental in the Lions recent string of victories.

Owls will have playmaker Jordan Thompson in their ranks and winger Bryan Hollingworth, who will be looking to continue his run of five pointers, which sees him currently lead the John I Dent Cup in tries with 5.

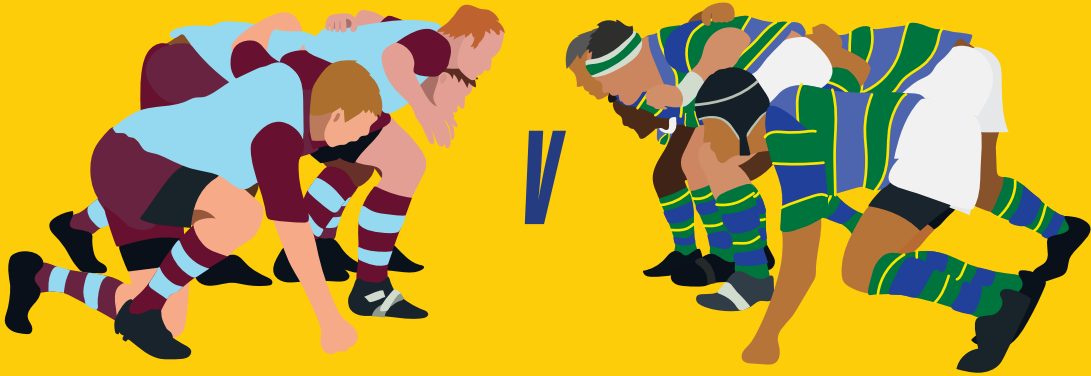

Tune in for all the action on Bar Tv sports live from 3:15pm on Saturday in what should be a thrilling contest.

It's not a case of do or die for the Queanbeyan Whites or Gungahlin at Campese Oval today, but neither side will want to stare down a 5 loss, 1 win record.

For the Eagles, that prospect is probably a bit more dour than the Whites. Tipped as favourites before the truncated season, Gungahlin are reeling from four defeats in a row.

Their last three, to be fair, have come against Vikings, Owls and Royals, all games where the Eagles were firmly in the contest but the side seem to be still recovering from their round two loss, against their opponents today.

Indeed, the Whites lone victory of 2020 came in shocking fashion back in round two against Gungahlin, at the Nest no less. Since then, they've been dispatched reasonably comfortably by all comers, bashed last week by Wests despite the Lions having 14 players for essentially, the entire contest.

Whites are young, rebuilding, whatever way you want to look at it but Eagles are supposed to be contenders this year. With the talent they have, Gungahlin should be there by the end of season and a result today, and perhaps more importantly a good performance, will give them the kickstart they need.

2020, in about every imaginable way, is so different to most seasons. Sneak into that top-four, and you essentially have as good a chance at taking home the title as anyone does, with the straight knockout format.

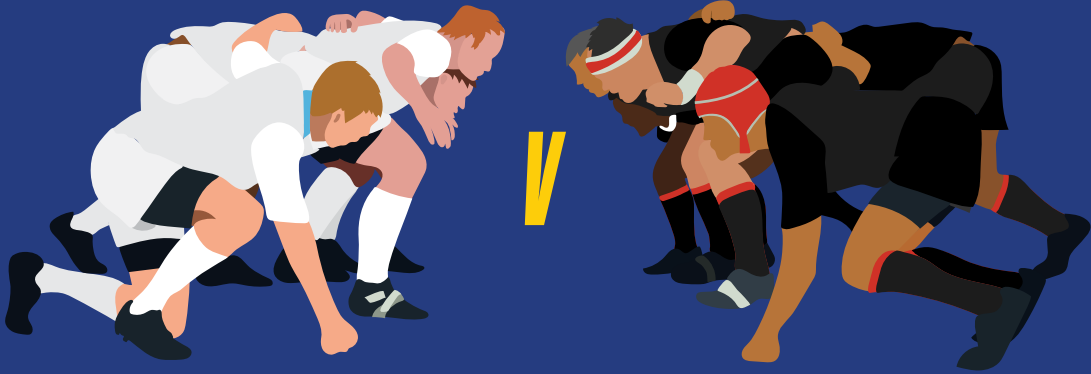

For Gungahlin, they'll either relish today's challenge as a chance to bury the memory of round two, or they will fear a confident Whites outfit who know they can beat them and are rarely easy outs at home.

It's a fascinating contest, which could be a defining fixture when we look back at it.

It is a mouth-watering clash this weekend, as the Canberra Royals host the Tuggeranong Vikings at Phillip Oval and if the last result between the two sides is anything to go by, it is sure to be a cracking game of rugby.

Last time, Vikings took the points in a hotly contested encounter. Even though they were up by 27 points at one stage, the result was never fully in their hands as Royals went on a scoring spree late on, scoring three tries in the last ten. It was not enough as the final score was 34-26 in favour of the Vikings.

After a horror start that saw them lose their first three, the Blue Baggers have found their form at just the right time, winning their last two outings against Queanbeyan and Gungahlin respectively.

The Vikings last outing saw them defeat the high-flying Uni-North Owls in a thrilling one point win. They also had the luxury of a week off in the form of the comp wide bye, while Royals braved the cold conditions to take on Gungahlin in their rescheduled round five clash.

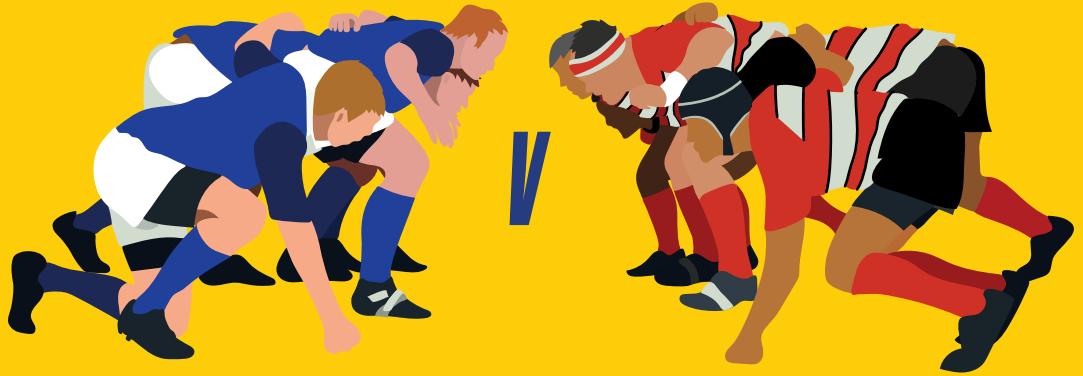

As the John I Dent Cup officially reaches the halfway mark, good form will be key for making the finals. This clash is the perfect test for the Royals, coming up against a Vikings side that is showing to be no easy beat.

This clash will surely tell the Royals if they have what it takes to make it to the end and play in yet another grand final. Kick-off for this clash 3:05pm at Phillip Oval, and you can catch all the action live thanks to BarTV Sports.

The ACT Women Premier 15s will continue through past round five with only one game being played that being the match between the Vikings and the Owls, while the match between Goulburn and the Royals being called off and Wests having the bye.

The competition will now move onto round six this weekend which sees Wests taking on the Owls and the Royals will take on the Vikings, While Goulburn have the bye for this round.

In the sole match of round five, The Owls were able to easily push past the Vikings 26-0 to continue their undefeated start to the season and extend their lead on top of the ladder. The match saw Talei Qalo Wilson scoring a double, while both Crystal Papalii and Siokapesi Palu got tries, with the latter scoring hers within the first minute of the match. Bridgette Cunningham also stepped in beautifully, taking over kicking duty from Samantha Wood who was out for the match, converting three of the four tries.

Now moving on to this week's games. In the first game we have Wests taking on the Owls at Jamison Oval. Both teams will be looking to get the victory with the Owls looking to continue their unbeaten start to the season, while Wests will be looking to get their first win of the season.

While in the other game of the round, the Canberra Royals will take on the Tuggeranong Vikings in a match that sees the winner taking outright second place on the ladder and possible if results go their way closing the gap from first to just four points.

The ACT Women's 10s competition for 2020 has continues this weekend with the round five games we had the Uni Norths Owls Women's 10s taking down the Bungendore Mudchicks Women's 29-0 at Mick Sherd Oval

MONARO CUP/SCM PREVIEW

Such has been the nature of the season, the South Coast Monaro 2nd division has had its ups and downs with fixtures cancelled, replayed but the most important thing is, the most exciting competition in Brumbies country continues to produce.

Jindabyne shocked the world by beating the Taralga Tigers 29-19 last weekend, the Tigers copping their first loss of the year after punishing Yass Rams 41-5 the previous week.

Yass aimed up the next week, keeping Batemans Bay square with a 24-24 draw.

Poor old Broulee's struggles continued last time out with their latest heavy defeat coming at the hands of Braidwood, 38-7.

Bungendore will feel they have a chance now, 22-19, after their win over Jindabyne a fortnight ago, given the Bushpigs victory against Taralga.

You can bet the Tigers will be wanting to make a big statement against the Bungendore Mudhooks this week.

Batemans Bay welcome the Braidwood Redbacks, with the Boars going well in the 2020 competition, while Broulee Dolphins will go hunting for their maiden victory against Yass Rams.

In the Monaro Cup, ADFA were dominant against Easts, 52-0 in a make up game on Tuesday night. RMX will play Hall to close out the action this week.
