Citizenship and Residency

To be treated as a domestic student, and so be entitled to the Government tuition subsidy, you must be:

- a citizen of New Zealand (including students from the Cook Islands, Tokelau, or Niue who have New Zealand citizenship) or
- a permanent resident of New Zealand or
- a citizen or permanent resident of Australia residing in New Zealand

You must provide evidence of citizenship or permanent residency. To do so you must produce one of the following:

- Birth certificate with place of birth stated as New Zealand, Cook Islands, Tokelau, or Niue.
- New Zealand passport.
- A certificate of identity.
- A statement of Whakapapa, including date of birth, countersigned by a kaumatua.
- A New Zealand certificate of citizenship.
- Overseas passport with residency stamp.

You can bring the original documentation to the course, alternatively please provide a certified copy. This means a photocopy, photograph or scanned copy of your original document, signed as being a true and accurate copy by a Justice of the Peace (JP), Barrister or Solicitor, Notary Public, Court Register or Deputy Registrar, Member of Parliament, Land Transport New Zealand, Public trust, or local authority employee designated for this purpose. If you are in a remote community and unable to access a person listed in the Oaths and Declarations Act, a member of the New Zealand Police, school principal, minister of religion, or general practitioner is acceptable.

Please note that your name, date of birth and residency as entered on this enrolment form will be included in the National Student Index and will be used in an Authorised Information Matching programmes with official government information such as the New Zealand Birth Register, to verify the information provided. On occasion, more than one National Student Number is created for an individual. The Ministry of Education regularly monitors the quality of the National Student Index and, when duplicates or errors are discovered, it works with providers and government agencies to merge duplicates and correct errors. This may require the documentation you provide at enrolment to be shared between agencies authorised to access the National Student Index to make these corrections.

Privacy

Auckland Rugby Union (ARU) collects and stores information from this form to:

- manage the business of ARU (including internal reporting, administrative processes and selection of scholarship and prize winners)
- comply with the requirements of the Education and Training Act 2020 and other legislation relating to maintenance of records
- supply information to government agencies and other organisations as set out below.

In signing this enrolment form you authorise the disclosure of your personal information on the understanding that ARU will comply with the legal requirements in relation to the use and disclosure of personal information, as set out in the Privacy Act 2020, the Education and Training Act 2020 and other relevant legislation. You are entitled to see any information that ARU holds about you and request to correct any errors in that information. To do so, contact the Education Manager.

NB: The Privacy Act 2020 has the stated aim of protecting the privacy of individuals. It also governs the collection, use, storage and disclosure of personal information.

The Privacy Act requires ARU to collect, hold, handle, use and disclose personal information in accordance with the twelve information privacy principles in the Act. <https://www.legislation.govt.nz/act/public/2020/0031/latest/LMS23223.html>

Supply of information to government agencies and other organisations

ARU supplies data collected on this form to government agencies, including:

- the Ministry of Education
- Education New Zealand
- the New Zealand Qualifications Authority
- the Tertiary Education Commission
- the Ministry of Social Development (in relation to student loans and allowances) and Inland Revenue (student loans)
- Immigration New Zealand (for those who are not New Zealand citizens or permanent residents) and the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment
- agencies which support particular students through scholarships, payment of fees or other awards (if you are a recipient of one of these awards).

Those agencies use the data collected from ARU to:

- administer the tertiary education system, including allocating funding and the administration of the Fees-Free initiatives
- develop policy advice for government
- conduct statistical analysis and research.

Your personal details (name, date of birth and residency) as entered on this form will be included in the National Student Index and may be used in an authorised information matching programme with the New Zealand Birth Register.

The government agencies above may supply data collected on this form to Statistics New Zealand for the purposes of integrating data with data collected by other government agencies, subject to the provisions of the Statistics Act 2022. Integrated data is used for the production of official statistics, to inform policy advice to government and for research purposes.

In handling data supplied by you on this form, the government agencies are required to comply with the provisions of the Privacy Act 2020.

Data storage – data collected from tertiary education organisations is now stored in the Cloud. Student enrolment and course and qualification completion data is stored in a Microsoft datastore based in Sydney, Australia.

When required by law, ARU releases information to government agencies such as the New Zealand Police, Department of Justice, Ministry of Social Development, and the Accident Compensation Corporation (ACC).

Information collected on this form may be supplied to other educational organisations for the purpose of verifying academic records.

Fees – In signing this enrolment form you undertake to pay all fees as they become due, and to meet any late fees and collection charges associated with debt recovery. ARU's policy on withdrawal and refund of fees may be obtained from the Education Manager.

Rules – In signing this enrolment form you undertake to comply with the published rules and policies of ARU regarding attendance, academic integrity and progress, conduct and use of information systems.

Declaration

I declare that to the best of my knowledge all the information supplied on, and with, this enrolment form is true and complete, I agree to abide by the conditions described above, and I consent to the disclosure of personal information as described above.
