Tiana ended her playing career after the Manusina campaign in the Oceania 7s in 2018. Her injury didn't stop her from contributing to the sport she love She recruited the first ever women's club team from Mulifanua and started her coaching career in 2019." My injury gave me another opporunity to give back to the sport I love. It is very challenging but I enjoy coaching the young girls and wome of my village"

"Playing rugby helps me gain my confident, in whatever I do in school and in my family". Valasi started playing through the Get Into Rugby introductory program when she was 9 years old.
