

STATEMENTS	T/F
1. All Super Rugby teams are located in the Southern Hemisphere.
2. Australia is approximately 2000km wide from the west to the east coast.
3. The Rebels are closer to the Sharks than the Blues.
4. The majority of the New Zealand teams come from the South Island.
5. The Indian Ocean separates Australia and South Africa.
6. By surface area, Australia is the biggest of the Super Rugby countries.
7. The longest plane ride is the Rebels to the Stormers.
8. New Zealand is the only continent of the Super Rugby countries.
9. South Africa has more 'inland' teams than 'coastal' teams.
10. More teams are located near the Pacific Ocean than the Indian Ocean.

